

BIOPHYSICS ADVANCEMENT TO CANDIDACY

Candidacy: To advance to candidacy, a student must pass the qualifying exam, find an advisor, join his/her group, begin doing research, write a scholarly paper based on that research, and present the proposal orally in front of the Program director, advisor and the mentoring committee. Approval of both the paper and the talk by the committee requires both a sufficiently high quality in content and in presentation.

Date

First name

Last name

Problem Definition:

Exemplary Performance
Meets Expectations
Does Not Meet Expectations

Literature and Previous Work:

Exemplary Performance
Meets Expectations
Does Not Meet Expectations

Results:

Exemplary Performance
Meets Expectations
Does Not Meet Expectations

Potential Impact of Work:

Exemplary Performance
Meets Expectations
Does Not Meet Expectations

Overall Communication Skills:

Exemplary Performance
Meets Expectations
Does Not Meet Expectations

Overall Assessment:

Pass
Fail

Additional comments

Signatures: print name, signature

Dates:
